

2010 Honeywell Customer & Product Support Operators Conference

Overview

Honeywell offers scheduled operator conferences free of charge at various regional locations throughout the year. The purpose is to provide operators, pilots and maintenance personnel updates on upcoming hardware/software changes as well as information on the Customer & Product Support organization.

There will be two rooms that run concurrently. One is for maintenance / technicians and the other is for pilots. The agenda for the pilot breakout room can be found below.

To register for a seminar or for additional information, please contact Pam Mannon at (913) 961-1901 or email Pamela.mannon@honeywell.com.
